1. What is the difference between a “certified” and an “uncertified” copy of a divorce certificate?

A certified copy of a divorce certificate issued by the State Vital Records Office will have a raised seal, will show the signature of the State Registrar, and will be printed on security paper. A certified copy may be required to change your last name or to marry.

State law restricts who may obtain a certified copy of a divorce certificate. A certified copy can only be issued to those people with a “direct and tangible interest” (section II, categories A – E) which means the following people:

- The husband or wife named on the divorce certificate (section II, category A).
- An immediate family member, defined as current spouse, current domestic partner (Declaration of Domestic Partnership registered the Wisconsin Vital Records System under Chapter 770, Wisconsin Statutes), child, parent (whose name is on the husband or wife’s birth certificate and whose parental rights have not been terminated), brother/sister, or grandparent of a subject of the record (section II, category B).
NOTE: Grandchildren, step-parents, and step-children can only obtain certified copies as C –E.
- The legal custodian or guardian of the husband or wife named on the divorce certificate. Legal proof, e.g., a court order of custody or guardianship, is required. (section II, category C).
- A person authorized in writing by one of the above. Written authorization with NOTARIZED signatures must accompany the application and the authorization must clearly state the relationship of the authorizing party to the subject of the record (section II, category D).
- A person who can demonstrate that the divorce certificate is required to determine or to protect a personal or property right (section II, category E). Proof is required.

If you do not meet one of the above criteria, you cannot receive a certified copy of a divorce certificate.

An uncertified copy will contain the same information as a certified copy but it is not acceptable for legal purposes, such as remarriage. (section II, category F)

2. How long will it take to process my request?

Copies of divorce certificates are available from the State Vital Records Office no less than 3 weeks from the date of the divorce.

• Applying in Person

In-person requests for certified copies of divorce certificates are usually completed within 2 business hours of application, if the divorce certificate is on file.

In-person requests for uncertified copies of divorce certificates are not completed on the same schedule as requests for certified copies. In-person requests for uncertified copies may take up to 6 months to complete.

• Applying by Mail

Requests for certified copies of divorce certificates may take up to 1 month to complete.

Requests for uncertified copies of divorce certificates are not completed on the same schedule as certified copies. Mail requests for uncertified copies may take up to 6 months to complete.

3. How will the certificate be sent?

Divorce certificates will be mailed in 1 of 3 ways:

- a self-addressed, stamped envelope provided by the applicant
- a pre-paid carrier envelope provided by the applicant (e.g., express carriers)
- first-class mail

NOTE: It is illegal to FAX divorce certificates.

4. What identification is required when applying for a certified or uncertified copy of a divorce certificate?

A current valid photo ID, such as a driver’s license, containing a picture, a current address, and an expiration date is required when applying in person. A photocopy of the applicant’s current valid photo ID must accompany all mail applications.
