The Bureau of Prevention, Treatment and Recovery is sponsoring a training for IDP assessors and supervisors on Wednesday, October 28th from 1:00 pm to 4:30 pm, immediately following the annual Bureau Conference. The training will provide updated information for Intoxicated Driving Program (IDP) staff and supervisors about changes and issues related to the IDP and operating while intoxicated (OWI) laws, policies, and procedures. It can qualify for part of the annual continuing education training requirement for IDP assessors.

Speakers include:

- Roger Teske, Vana Steffens, and Reggie Paradowski from the Department of Transportation
- Kristi Obmascher from the UW Division of Continuing Studies
- A panel of speakers sharing information about the use of biomarkers with IDP clients including Pamela Bean, and staff from Dane County and Waukesha County
- Nina Emerson from the UW Center on Impaired Driving

If you plan to attend only the IDP assessors training, contact Kate Johnson in the Bureau of Prevention, Treatment and Recovery at sarahkate.johnson@wisconsin.gov or (608)267-7707.

If you plan to attend the full conference and the IDP assessors training, please complete the conference registration form at the following link:
