

NEED EXTRA CASH?

WISCONSIN AND FEDERAL EARNED INCOME TAX CREDITS

You may be eligible for both Wisconsin and federal tax credits if you worked any time in 2015. You may be able to get a combined total of state and federal credits up to:

- $8,364 if you have three or more children and family income less than $47,747 (single), $53,267 (married).
- $6,158 if you have two children and family income less than $44,454 (single), $49,974 (married).
- $3,493 if you have one child and family income less than $39,131 (single), $44,651 (married).
- $503 if you do not have any children and family income less than $14,820 (single), $20,330 (married).

More detailed information can be found at <https://www.irs.gov/Credits-&-Deductions/Individuals/Earned-Income-Tax-Credit> and <http://www.revenue.wi.gov/individuals/eic.html>.

NOTE: All federal tax refunds will not be counted as income or as an asset for 12 months when determining an individual's eligibility or benefit amount for W-2, Job Access Loans, Emergency Assistance, Refugee Assistance Programs, Transform Milwaukee Jobs, Child Care, FoodShare, BadgerCare Plus, Medicaid, and Caretaker Supplement.

FEDERAL CHILD TAX CREDIT

You may be eligible for up to a maximum federal tax credit of $1,000 per dependent child under age 17. This tax credit can be used to lower the amount of federal taxes you owe, but the total credit for all children cannot be more than what you actually owe in federal taxes. More detailed information can be found at <https://www.irs.gov/uac/Is-My-Child-a-Qualifying-Child-for-the-Child-Tax-Credit%3F>.

FEDERAL CHILD AND DEPENDENT CARE CREDIT

You may be able to claim the Child and Dependent Care Credit if you pay someone to care for a qualifying dependent child that is under age 13 or a spouse and certain other individuals who are physically or mentally incapable of self-care. The credit can be up to 35 percent of allowable care expenses. More detailed information can be found at <http://www.irs.gov/taxtopics/tc602.html>.

WISCONSIN HOMESTEAD CREDIT

You may be eligible for up to a maximum tax credit of $1,168 if you were a Wisconsin resident for all of 2015 and can provide copies of rent receipts (if renting) or property tax receipt (if you own your home) and your family income was less than $24,680 for 2015. Individuals are not eligible for a Homestead Credit if they received a W-2 payment in every month of 2015. More detailed information can be found at <http://www.revenue.wi.gov/fags/ise/home.html>.

NOT SURE IF YOU ARE ELIGIBLE FOR THESE TAX CREDITS OR REFUNDS?
NEED HELP TO FIND OUT?
NEED FREE TAX RETURN PREPARATION ASSISTANCE?

Starting February 1, 2016, you can get free tax help by contacting a Wisconsin Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) site. VITA sites can be found in some community centers, libraries, churches, shopping malls, and retirement homes. To find a local Wisconsin VITA site, call 211 or visit <http://irs.treasury.gov/freetaxprep/>. For other federal related tax questions call 1-800-906-9887.

NOTICE! News articles say to be careful if a company promises you tax refund money early based on your last paycheck or a tax estimate. You might lose much of your tax refund due to high interest and fees. Please read and understand all documents before signing any agreement. VITA sites are free and often have fast electronic processing of tax returns.
