- Statutory Council on Blindness (SCOB) - Rhonda Staats shared The Wisconsin's Statutory Council on Blindness (WSCOB) last met on Friday, June 26, 2021. Recruitment and members' terms continue to be an issue. COVID-19 has negatively affected vendors, particularly those whose main revenue came from servicing correctional facilities. The program is working toward re-inventing itself and recruiting new business owners. The WSCOB continues to work toward greater accessibility of DHS web content and application forms. We also discussed job listings sites operated by the state. The website listing state jobs has improved accessibility. The Wisconsin Job Center website; which lists all private and some public sector jobs, remains accessible with a screen reader. The WSCOB favors a summit meeting to better coordinate priorities and efforts.
- Wisconsin Council on Mental Health (WCMH) - Kimberlee Coronado shared that she was currently working on Mental Health Block Grant applications and creating strategic plans and priorities based on the 2022-2022 Biennial Budget. WCMH is working on Equity and Access with Statutory Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse (SCAODA).

XII. Discuss GCPD Membership Recruitment

- David Morstad shared that GCPD has one member vacancy at this time. The Full Committee discussed the need for ethnic diversity and the importance of active membership; as GCPD is very active with disability-related policy and guidance.
 - David Morstad stated that Evan Steck, Interim Director of Gubernatorial Appointments, had sent over a list of individuals who were interested in being on constitute councils.
 - David Morstad spoke to the fact that there are currently no term limits for GCPD membership, and the importance of re-evaluating membership and participation capacity; and being ok with stepping up or stepping down from GCPD.
