

Respiratory Illnesses:

Protect yourself and those around you.

Wash your hands frequently.

Avoid close contact with sick people.

Stay home when sick.

Avoid touching your face with unwashed hands.

Cover coughs and sneezes.

If you have symptoms consistent with respiratory illness and test negative for COVID-19, contact your health care provider.

They may recommend testing for other respiratory viruses.

