

Testing Strategy for Lower Accuracy Tests

(all point of care tests)

Note: Confirmatory testing should be performed as soon as possible and within 48 hours. PCR as the second test is highly preferred for the greatest accuracy. Antigen tests can only result in probable cases, not confirmed cases.