Medicaid Programs for Pregnant People

Wisconsin Medicaid is committed to keeping you and your baby happy and healthy.

When you're sick or injured, you know BadgerCare Plus or your other Medicaid coverage is there for you. But did you know there are also programs just to support keeping pregnant persons and their babies healthy?

Take advantage of these services—they are free to you under your state health plan!

Prenatal Care Coordination

Prenatal care coordination helps pregnant people get the supports and services they need during and right after pregnancy.

Under this benefit, a person called a care coordinator can help you with things like:

- Getting one-on-one support to understand and deal with the challenges of pregnancy.
- Setting up important health care appointments.
- Learning about services in your community to help with food, housing, and transportation.
- Finding a health care provider to care for you and your baby.

Find a prenatal care coordinator near you:

BadgerCare Plus Prenatal Plan

Are you part of the BadgerCare Plus Prenatal Plan? Remember that while it covers your doctor and clinic visits, labor and delivery, prescription drugs—even prenatal vitamins—it also covers health care not directly related to your pregnancy.

Take care of yourself and see a doctor when you need to for any reason. It's covered under the BadgerCare Plus Prenatal Plan.
